

Parenting

The world's most important job

It's a job over 80 percent of us will hold, yet it offers no training, requires no special skills or license.

No wonder so many people are looking for answers.

Below are links you can follow to learn more about parenting resources in the Roanoke Valley and beyond.

If you have a parenting workshop, class or project you would like included on this list, send the information to info@valleycharacter.org.

Calendar listings are free. Anyone can submit an event, just go to the calendar section of the web site.

Want to be on Valley Character's
Parenting Committee?
Email us at info@valleycharacter.org
and we'll let you know when and where the next meeting is, and
what's on the horizon.

Resources for parents

The Council of Community Services links people with available community resources throughout Southwestern Virginia. Child care options and parenting classes are some of the many items listed.

For questions about parenting, or any other topic, Call 2-1-1 VIRGINIA. An operator will seek the answer or provide a referral to a community service agency in this region. The web site offers key word search or topic search.
