A GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BENEFIT
VALLEY CHARACTER PROGRAMS
OFFERED AT NO COST TO
TOTAL ACTION AGAINST POVERTY
AND BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS

If you give a man a fish, he eats for a day.
If you teach a man to fish, he eats for a lifetime.

We seek to build better fishermen

Valley Character is holding a golf tournament on Monday, Oct. 20 at Ashley Plantation to benefit its programs offered to Total Action Against Poverty and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Southwest Virginia. The programs seek to break the cycle of poverty by demonstrating that Dependability and Responsibility are the most important work skills any employee can have. With them, any person, regardless of experience, education or circumstance can be successful and valuable to their employer.
